

Best Supply Chain writer of the year award

	Criteria	Score
Recognition of writers in Supply Chain offering solution oriented content in supply chain management	Supply Chain Management related theme (procurement, warehousing and inventory management, contract management, logistics, Supply chain audit and strategy; etc.)	5
	Use of novel and appropriate supply chain jargon (at least 2 different new/not common words/jargon in supply chain) @ new/uncommon words/jargon – 5 marks	10
	Clear and fluent discussions/arguments on supply chain management <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Flow of article and coordination of themes – 5 marks</li> <li>b. Creative writing – 5 marks</li> <li>c. Arguments based on experience/case studies and application – 5 marks</li> </ol>	15
	Thought provoking and solution oriented supply chain management content (with an aim of causing change) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Proposed methodologies/tools/proposed approaches – 15 marks</li> <li>b. Proposed applications/solutions – 15 marks</li> </ol>	30
	Free from grammatical and punctuation errors <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Free from spelling mistakes – 5 marks</li> <li>b. Proper punctuation – 5 marks</li> </ol>	10
	Targeted to all audiences in the supply chain (public sector, private sector and 3 rd sector). An article that captures the attention of all supply chain practitioners	15
	Authentic writing and free from plagiarism with appropriate referencing <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Free from plagiarism - 10 marks</li> <li>b. Appropriate referencing - 5 marks</li> </ol>	15
	TOTAL	100